PLANS MADE FOR RED CROSS DRIVE

FIFTH ANNUAL ROLL CALL BEGINS NOVEMBER 13.

AN INTENSIVE CAMPAIGN

Chamber of Commerce Will Co-operate With Executive Committee—Movies Show Activities.

"One hundred per cent membership for Nodaway County," was the slogan adopted by the executive committee of the Nodaway County Chapter of the Red Cross, which met last night to plan for the fifth annual Red Cross roll call.

Methods of publicity were discussed, and The Rev. S. P. Allison, Mrs. C. C. Hellmers and Prof. A. H. Cooper were named as a committee on publicity, with others to be added later. Mr. Allison is chairman of the roll call executive committee.

"Every effort will be to make the people of Nodaway County realize that this is their Red Cross Chapter, and how much it is doing in the County," said Mr. Allison. "Great enthusiasm and fine co-operation has put Nodaway County in the lead in the Better Bulls contest, and now the Red Cross asks for enthusiasm and co-operation in its work for better Boys and Girls and Babies."

Mr. Allison also called attention to the efficient service to the war veterans.

Fifty cents of every $1, $5 and $10 membership goes to the national Red Cross. The balance goes to the Nodaway County Chapter and is devoted to the work here.

The plan is for the roll call is to have a chairman in each branch, to have a house to house canvass in each center of population, and to work by school districts in the rural sections.

Tuesday, November 1, it is planned to have a get-together meeting of the workers here in Maryville to discuss plans and enthuse each other for the Roll Call. Today the committee is at work getting in touch with Red Cross leaders in the various branches of the County Chapter. During the latter part of the week auto parties will visit the various towns for personal consultation and to urge attendance at the Get-Together meeting.

November 13 was designated Red Cross Sunday and the ministers of the county will be asked to co-operate then.

At 2 p. m. November 13, the Roll Call begins, and November 13, 14 and 15 were designated as the days for the drive. Only two and a half days are designated for the drive, because it was believed such a short, intensive campaign, with the proper effort by the workers, and response by the people, would make the Roll Call much easier for everybody.

A Roll Call executive committee was organized consisting of S. P. Allison, chairman; Harry Todd, vice-chairman; Miss Lucie Davis, secretary; F. S. King, treasurer. Working in close affiliation with this committee will be Miss Betty Turner, executive secretary of the Red Cross Chapter, and also George A. Pickens and R. L. Hosmer, secretary and president of the Chamber of Commerce. The experience of these men in their work to develop a county consciousness, and a real Nodaway County spirit enables them to make valuable suggestions.

Moving pictures have been taken of the Red Cross work that is being done in Nodaway County and will be shown with the Chamber of Commerce films at the various community meetings throughout the county. A speaker will then present the Red Cross work in the county.

"The committee meeting began at 7:45 o'clock on time to the very minute, the chairman said, "the enthusiasm, the interest, and the fine turnout of committee members gives every indication for a successful roll call."

Those present were: Miss Betty Turner, Miss Lucie Davis, Mrs. C. C. Hellmers, R. B. Montgomery, F. S. King, George R. Ellison, A. H. Cooper, Harry Todd, H. L. Raines, Roy Hanna, C. E. Wells, George Pickens and Mr. Allison.

CANCELLATION OF DEBTS PROPOSED

QUESTION MAY COME UP DURING ARMAMENT CONFERENCE

ENGLAND FAVORS MOVE

Observers Profess To See a Drift Toward World-Wide Financial Readjustment

London, Oct. 25—"Whether we plan it so or not; whether we like it or not, the question of debt cancellation is going to be crowded into the floor of the Disarmament Conference in Washington."

Here is a view taken by certain British writers and economists. A view that has led to reasoning along the following lines:

All signs, printed and spoken—the latter obtained by personal contact in official and unofficial quarters—point to a campaign of discussion which will bubble along during subsequent weeks and give an appearance of world demand for a world financial review, with adjustments.

The only possible adjustment is one that shall start with an American sacrifice, which shall be passed on to Britain, France, Belgium and Germany by cancellation of debts owed England and by decreasing the indemnity burden on Germany.

Officially, the Treasury and Foreign office position is that they received a debt cancellation suggestion from France many months ago, forwarded it on to Washington, where it was promptly turned down, and that that ends it. The British Government realizes that the subject of debt cancellation is unpopular with the rank and file in the States and desires nothing so much as that the subject be dropped at once and for all. Britain is willing to discuss cancellation of debts owed her on Continent but cannot propose reopening of the American debt question.

So run the official "hand-outs" obtained when, regularly, the question pops up again and again in some form.

Although the debt cancellation question has been killed without equivocation by two or three—at least—formal and official denials, four or five—at least—Cabinet Ministers, in the course of speeches, subsequently have reopened the subject. The last member of His Majesty's Government to do so was Winston Churchill, in a speech in Dundee on September 24.

It is significant also that the Daily Chronicle, known as the Lloyd George journal, has been at the forefront in bringing debt cancellation to the front as a Washington subject, while the Pall Mall and Globe, the evening newspaper owned by the controlling interests of the Chronicle in a strongly and carefully worded editorial, warns America that her appeals to the world's spirit of philanthropy, in the Washington conference, "can scarcely sound convincing if they are to be taken as from a nation that insists upon its full financial rights over an exhausted and impoverished world."

During the war there was developed in Fleet street a very effective Newspaper Publishers' Association, the journalistic policies of the nation by a mere word passed along the line of offices in Fleet street. Since the war it is still possible to obtain a definite and fixed reaction, or a withholding of comment. Within limitations, the press of Great Britian, Government press and opposition alike can be inspired."

The press reports on the Washington conference preliminaries have had a certain suspicious similarity. It may be coincidence. It may be something else.

Who knows of any other thing in this old world, which can cause as much trouble as a second hand automobile?

"SAFETY FIRST" IS HILARIOUS SUCCESS

LEGION BENEFIT PLAY PLEASES LARGE AUDIENCE

LOUIS KRAFT A STAR

Shares Comedy Honors With Director Mullarkey—Misses Raines and Miller Popular As Usual

All that it was promised to be was "Safety First" at the Empire Theater last night. Billowing waves of laughter in a sea of melody featured the American Legion's Second Annual Benefit Play, which will be presented again tonight.

Director Leo F. Mullarkey discovered new and unsuspected talent for his hilarious production. In the principal comedy parts, the director was forced to share honors with Louis Kraft, who made a decided hit with his dutch impersonations. As Felix First, he assisted his Irish comrade, E. Wall First, in keeping the audience in an uproar. Fred Knox was George First.

Misses Mabel Raines and Ruth Miller, who were not entirely new to their audience upheld their reputations as leaders among Maryville's thespians. The former was especially versatile in her role of a sufferage leader and later as a Bowery tough.

The opening chorus, "Pucker Up and Whistle," put the audience in a proper frame of mind. Each succeeding number left them undecided about which was best. Perhaps the most ludicrous and most effectively carried out was the Bowery dance, with Miss Mabel Raines singing "When Francis Dances With Me."

Other popular numbers were "Peggy O'Neil," with Miss Lucile Cummins as soloist; "I See Your Face," by Miss Marie Cloud; "Why Do They Always Say No," by Leo F. Mullarkey, a Spanish dance by Miss Olive Ewing; "I Want To Be Leader of the Band," with Russell Allan as soloist; "Nobody's Baby," by Miss Ethel Wallace; "When My Shoes Wear Out From Walking, I'll Be On My Feet Again," by Creston Maul; "Do You Ever Think Of Me," by Carlos Yehle; "Nobody's Rose," by Miss Mary Holt, assisted by Frank Roelofon; "Up in the Clouds," by Miss Marie Cloud and Frank Roelofson; "Baby From Babylon," by Miss Ethel Wallace and Carlos Yehle, and an oriental dance by the former.

Throughout the play there were selections by a quartet composed of Floyd Lunsford, Russell Allan, Floyd Foreman and Harvey Bush. After responding to numerous encores, the audience was left still unsatisfied.

Although it was not apparent to the audience, Miss Margaret Louise Hosmer gave her violin solo in the second act under difficulties. After having her instrument properly tuned, several strings were broken in an accident during the intermission. A hurry call to the orchestra pit brought other strings, but they snapped as they were being fitted to the instrument. Miss Hosmer then gave her solo on the violin of C. D. Kutschinski, playing on the strange instument as if it were her own.

Between the acts, Miss Mae Corwin gave a group of songs in costume. Director Mullarkey gave a monologue.

Accompanist to the musical numbers was furnished by Schumacher's Orchestra. The opening overture was well played and received much favorable comment.

The chorus included the following: Misses Evelyn Raines, Lucile Cummins, Mary Holt, Gladys Sewell Ethel Wallace, Charlene Pixler, Matie Price, Olive Ewing, Margaret Louise Hosmer, Audrey Craig, Laura Margaret Raines, Messrs. Emmett Bartram, Dale Castillo, John C. Wilson, Frank Roelofson, Harold Roelofson, John Mutz, Frank Mapel, Frank Reddick, Henderson Aley, Carlos Yehle, Paul Blagg.

FRANK REYNOLDS WAS ACQUITTED

FORMER MARYVILLE RESIDENT CLEARED AT BREMERTON, WASH.

EXTORTION CHARGE MADE

As Plice Chief, Reynolds Has Made Many Emenies Among the Bootleggers and They Are After Him.

Frank Reynolds, a former Maryville resident, but now chief of police at Bremerton, Wash., was recently acquitted of the charge of grand larceney. The following article is taken from a Bremerton, Wash., paper:

Chief of Police Frank Reynolds is not guilty. That was the verdict returned by the jury in superior court at Port Orchard. The charge against Reynolds was grand larceny for the alleged theft of a diamond ring from Mrs. Virginia Munzo which she had given him in lieu of bail money. The jury was ready to report immediately after they returned to the court room from lunch, but was delayed a short time because being tried.

Many considered the verdict of "not guilty" was a foregone conclusion from the first because of the discrediting of several witnesses for the state. A few business men testified that Reynolds' reputation was bad, while on the other hand two ministers and several other citizens gave testimony to prove his reputation good. Sheriff Fred Fein, Patrolman John Kvistad testified against Reynolds, as did also F. M. Chase, acting chief of police since Reynolds' retirement on vacation following his arrest. Herman Renn testified that the people of Bremerton were divided in their opinions as to Reynolds' reputation and that he believed the accused to be honest.

Marion Garland, Reynolds' attorney, who made the closing argument for the defense, delivered a masterly address, reviewing the attempts of Chief Reynolds to clean out the dives in Bremerton and appealing to the jury to turn him loose so he could finish the work. After the jury had been discharged the women members shook hands with Reynolds and said: "Go back and finish the job."

This case and the charge of extortion which was first brought against Reynolds has agitated the community for the past two months. The city administration has backed Reynolds consistently, as did also the Good Government League. The charges of graft and extortion brought by the opposition was met with the counter charge of a frame-up to get rid of Reynolds and to discredit the administration. The charge of extortion failed to stand in court on three different occasions, the last complaint bein dismissed on demurrer by Judge J. M. Ralston of Port Townsend, who was called in to hear both cases after Judge Walter M. French had been disqualified by the filing of an affidavit of prejudice by Reynolds' attorneys.

Reynolds stands today a free man, although it is reported that Prosecutor Greenwood will immediately file another complaint against him charging extortion or embezzlement.

Reynolds was reinstated as chief of police by the city of Bremerton after his acquittal.

J. KELLY WRIGHT HERE TO SPEAK AT BANQUET

Rain Not Expected to Interfere With Gathering of County Shorthorn Breeders.

J. Kelly Wright of the Missouri State Board of Agriculture arrived in Maryville today to give his illustrated lecture tonight at the banquet of the Nodaway County Shorthorn Breeders' Association at the Bainum hotel.

"The lecture is not a booster talk for Missouri," said Mr. Wright. "It points out the things that make for the kind of citizenship we want in Missouri, shows what Missouri has to make such a citizenship and what other things can be done."

Seventy members of the association had announced this afternoon their intention of coming to the banquet. The rain this afternoon is not expected to interfere seriously.

In addition to the slides illustrating the Missouri lecture, there will be a reel of movies furnished by the International Shorthorn Breeders Association and the new film of the Chamber of Commerce.

STRIKE SITUATION UNCHANGED TODAY

BOTH SIDES WAIT FOR RESULT OF HEARING TOMORROW

UNION LEADERS CONFER

Will Agree On "Irreducible Minimum" As Basis For Settlement—Signalmen Won't Go Out

Chicago, Oct. 25—A standpat attitude appeared to prevade the more than one hundred railway executives as they assembled here today preparatory to the hearing Wednesday before the Railway Labor Board. The executives showed no indication of yielding to the employees from the terms of the labor board's twelve and a half per cent wage reduction.

Cleveland, Oct. 25.—Leaders of the five unions allied in a call for a nation-wide railway strike October 30 will today agree upon an "irreducible minimum" upon which they will be willing to rescind the strike call now in hands of the local chairmen of the organizations on all roads. The present plans call for no peace formula from the unions. The leaders will listen to proposals of the railroad labor board or the executives who will sit with them in the Chicago conference tomorrow.

THE SITUATION TODAY.

Chicago—Railroad labor board announces there "is great hope" that scheduled strike can be settled and warns public to refrain from "loose talk" about roads or unions.

Labor board receives word from Big Four brotherhood chiefs reiterating warning that strike cannot be postponed although it may be settled.

Labor board members say it will not offer any plan of settlement of strike situation at Wednesday's hearing and that any such plan must come from the roads or the unions.

The Coliseum, scene of many national political conventions, selected by the board for strike hearing with 1,800 rail and union chiefs beginning Wednesday. Public invited and announcement made that the 1,800 executives must attend every session.

Officials of signalmen's union, representing 15,000 rail employes, vote not to authorize walkout at present, thus limiting prospective strikers to 475,000 trainmen, conductors, engineers, firemen, switchmen and telegraphers. Leaders warn signalmen to perform only their regular work, however.

Cleveland—Big Four brotherhood chiefs announce that strike situation is unchanged.

Washington — Attorney General Daugherty confers over strike situation with United States district attorneys from New York, Chicago, Cleveland, Buffalo and Indianapolis.

St. Louis—E. J. Manion, president of the railway telegraphers union, denies report his 75,000 men may not walk out and says they positively will stand by the "Big Five" in the proposed strike.

Houston—International & Great Northern passenger service remains normal and freight service rapidly approaches normal, despite strike of 600 trainmen, which started Saturday.

Speirs Leave for Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Speirs left today in their car for a trip to points in Florida where they expect to remain until the first of next May.

FORMER EMPEROR WILL BE BANISHED

ROYALIST COUP IN HUNGARY COLLAPSES.

ALLIES DEBATE HIS FATE

Charles and Zita Safely Held in Custody Pending Decision—Monarchist Leaders Arrested.

London, Oct. 25.—The allied government today instructed Hungary to keep Charles safely in custody pending a decision as to his final disposal. The Allies are in quandary as what should be done with Charles. It is reported from Paris he may be banished to the Canary Island or the Ascension Island.

Budapest, Oct. 25—The Hungarian government today awaited orders from the Allies as to the future disposition of Charles, former emperor, and his wife, Zita, who are detained incommunicado in a castle near Komorn. Charles is said to be broken hearted over the failure of his attempted coup. The arrest of all monarchist leaders has been ordered by the government.

Berlin, Oct. 25—The Allied powers are now debating the future fate of Charles and Zita following their capture after an ignominious collapse of the restorationist movement in Hungary. It is very likely they will be kept at Komorn until the Allies decide upon the asylum at which they will be imprisoned.

Geneva, Oct. 25.—All members of the household of former Emperor Charles except the children and their nurse have been expelled from Switzerland today.

Budapest, Oct. 25 — Ex-Emperor Charles and Ex-Empress Zita were captured yesterday near Komorn and are now confined in the castle at Tata-Tavaros, guarded by two companies of government troops.

Colonel Oesentburg's troops, covering the retreat of the former rulers, were forced to surrender and are prisoners.

The Carlist premier Rakovsky and Count Andrassy were captured at the same time as the former king. The Carlist forces are fleeing all directions.

As far as is known at the present time, Charles managed to push a trainload of troops to Budaor, a short distance from Budapest. At first he held his own against the forces of Regent Horthy, but when the Horthy troops were re-enforced Charles was ocmpelled to beat a retreat at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, closely followed by the Horthy forces, to Herceghalom.

The retreat gained speed when it was learned that Colonel Hejjas was marching to take the royalists in the rear, and by dawn the army of Charles melted away so fast that the Horthy forces lost all touch with them.

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN NODAWAY COUNTY

WOMEN CAN HOLD OFFICES.

According to the ruling of Attorney General Barrett, women are eligible, under the constitutional amendment adopted, to all state, county and municipal offices in state of Missouri. No legislation is necessary to put the amendment into effect and the last civic inequality as between male and female voters is removed.

The greatest handicap the women will have to the full enjoyment of the privileges granted to them will be found in their growing indifference to the voting privilege and their natural disinclination to indulge in political contests. It has been the rule generally that, after the novelty of voting wears off, the ladies begin to lose interest in elections just as a good many good men do.

In New Mexico, where a United States senator was recently elected and in Massachusetts, where a member of Congress was elected, there was a heavy falling off in the women's vote. This has been very generally true since the elections of last fall. Perhaps the ladies will eventually get into the harness more enthusiastically but the fact remains that there are so many things and so many fields of endeavor that naturally appeal to women by nature and environment more than the intricacies and the devious ways of politics that, with a large majority of them, a full participation must come through a positive effort.

On the other hand, if the good results of woman suffrage are to be gained and accrue fully to the public, it must be through a general assumption of the obligation imposed upon all citizens in the right to vote. A duty goes with the privilege. It may be assumed that the undesirable voters among the women will exercise the privilege to the fullest extent and the best results from universal suffrage can not be realized unless the best women rise to their obligations as fully as others do to their privilege.

The United States Steel Corporation has announced a reduction of seven dollars a ton in steel rails. This ought to help the railroads make a further cut in freight rates.

In all fairness, the railroads should reduce freight rates on livestock and farm products to a point where the shipper of sheep and other livestock will not have to send his commission merchant money to finish paying for commission and freight charges after selling the stock.

William H. Allen of St. Louis, formerly connected with the Federal Land Bank, is the new prohibition director for the state of Missouri. Mr. Allen has been a banker and went to St. Louis from Clinton. Dr. Shupp, who is an ardent prohibitionist and an equally ardent republican says the appointment is a good one.

If Director Dawes has any authority over the actions of Congress in the matter of expenditures, he might very well put the pruning knife to the Congressional Record. The Record is supposed to be an accurate record of the proceedings of Congress. It is at best but a censored record and frequently is made up largely of "leaves to print" of newspaper and magazine articles of no particular general interest, paid for at public expense and running into the thousands of dollars. Because Senator Sorghum thinks some article will help him in his district or injure an opponent, he gets leave to print in the Congressional Record. Nobody reads it but all help to pay for it.

MONDELL ASKS EXPULSION OF TEXAS CONGRESSMAN.

Candle and Grade Eggs.

Farm women frequently have entire charge of the marketing of eggs, butter, and poultry. In some states they form what are called "egg circles" for marketing their eggs in large quantities. The eggs are collected regularly by one of the members or by some one hired by the circle. Efforts are being made by marketing agents of the United States Department of Agriculture to teach these farm women the value of properly candling and grading the eggs so that only the best are marketed.

Irish Remember Mac Swiney

London, Oct. 25—There was a large gathering at Trafalgar Square Sunday afternoon to celebrate the anniversary of the death of Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork. MacSwiney died in Brixton prison while on a hunger strike.

None of the Irish delegates to the peace conference attended but William Roth, member of the parliament for Cork, was among the speakers. Frequent reference was made by speakers to the telegram of Eamon de Valera to Pope Benedict, which was indorsed by the gathering.

Branches of the Irish Self-determination League organized processions which, carrying banners and headed by bands, marched from Trafalgar Square. Notwithstanding the rain, it is estimated that nearly twenty thousand persons took part in the demonstration.

BEER AS MEDICINE TO BE PERMITTED

TREASURY DEPARTMENT UNEXPECTEDLY ISSUES RULING.

MAY PRESCRIBE BY CASE

Regulations Also Permit Doctors to Prescribe Two Quarts of Wine to Sick Men

Washington, Oct. 25.—Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon League, holds that issuance of the beer regulations at this time will permit the use of beer in only nine states—Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Wisconsin and California.

"Every brewer who has violated the law within a year is disqualified," he said, "and we will fight every application on this ground, as they have practically all violated the law."

Washington, Oct. 25—As unexpected as a rainstorm in a desert, regulations permitting the manufacture and use of beer for medical purposes were issued yesterday by the treasury department.

Withheld since March 3, last, when former Attorney General Palmer held the use of beer as a medicine to be legal under the prohibition laws, the issuance of the beer regulations came as a complete surprise to leaders of the dry forces who declared there had been an understanding with the treaty that the new rules should not be promulgated until the senate had acted upon the pending anti-beer bill.

Issuance of the beer regulations will cause redoubled efforts to effect the passage of the anti-beer measures, senate leaders declared, while Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon league, described the treasury's action as "less defensible than at any other time."

Sick Man May Get Case.

Secretary Mellon, in announcing the issuance of the beer rules, declared that "the legal rights of the parties concerned being plain, the department is unable longer to delay the issuance of these regulations."

The new rules cover comprehensively the use of beer, wines and spiritious liquors as medicines. The amount of beer a physician may prescribe at one time for the use of the same person is limited to 2½ gallons, the equivalent of a case, but no arbitrary limit is placed upon the number of such prescriptions a physician may write or the same person may obtain within a given period.

Two quarts of wine was the limit put on a single prescription for that beverage, but otherwise the regulations are the same as for beer.

Spiritious liquors are limited to one pint within any ten day period and alcohol for external use was limited to a pint to the same person at one time.

Druggists Still Hold Key.

Prescriptions for these medicines may be filled only by a licensed pharmacist, who is also a retail druggist, or a licensed pharmacist in the employ of a retail druggist.

Prescriptions are not refillable and the regulations declare that a pharmacist "should refuse to fill any prescription for liquor if he has any reason to believe that physicians are prescribing for other than medical uses or that patient is securing through one or more physicians quantities of intoxicating liquor in excess of the amount necessary for medicinal purposes."

In connection with the issuance of prescriptions the regulations said:

"No prescription may be issued for a greater quantity of intoxicating liquors than is necessary for use as a medicine by a physician for whom prescribed in the treatment of an ailment from which the patient is known by the physician to be suffering."

STUDENTS HOLD "SHELLAC ASSEMBLY" THIS MORNING

Ball Won In Game Friday Is Placed In Trophy Cabinet At State Teachers College

A 'Schellacing Assembly" was held at the State Teachers College this morning, when the football won from Central Wesleyan at Warrenton Saturday was duly adorned with the score, coated with schellac, and placed on display.

Talks were made by Captain Dick Kirby, Paul Pickens, and Jack Bland.

While the ball was being worked on, the school songs and yells were practiced for the game with Palmer College here Friday.

Another Big Sweet Potato

James Clayton, living two and half miles northeast of Pickering, has raised a sweet potato which for weight and size equals if not excels the champion potato in this county to date. It weighs seven pounds and measures thirty-eight inches the long way of the potato and twenty inches around.

Party Bags 150 Mallards

A party of duck hunters from Maryville secured 150 mallards on the Missouri river, near Bigelow, yesterday. In the party were W. A. Tindall, R. R. Souers, L. A. Conder, Williams, Loren Womack and F. E. Winans.

Forumettes

When normalcy comes, how much farther will some people want to go?

The few cool days have brought the woolen stockings out of Maryville flappers' cedar chests. Louise, the typist, is authority for the statement that silk hose are usually worn under them to take away the itch.

A glance into almost any dance hall will cause you to wonder, now that wrestlers have barred the strangle hold, why others do not follow suit.

Not so many years ago the woman who could not go to a party "because she had nothing to wear" provoked sympathy. Now she calls forth envy, as she is right in style.

A Maryville bachelor was overheard to say the other day that about the only time the average woman refuses to talk back is when she accepts some poor boob's seat in a crowded street car.

Peanut merchants will have to be given credit for at least knowing the war is over. The vacuum in the bag is now comfortably filled with peanuts.

Maryville colored folk know how to talk horseshoes as well as do African dominoes. "Come on you Shetland pony dogs. Lay over that peg" and "Please Mr. Mule shoe lay close to that tent polo" are some of their cracks.

Louise, the stenographer, says you can make fun of a girl in a short skirt, but ask where you can find anything funnier than a man in golf pants.

A Maryville jeweler says that stick pins and lavaliers are two articles of jewelery which have lost their popularity. A few fellows like the necktie ornament if it is a diamond but the lavalier is clear out of date.

George Robb Ellison says he will never lose faith in humanity until he hears that women are beginning to chew tobacco.

A Main Street business man exercised with the dumbbells every morning for two months. "It is too much work," he was heard to tell a business associate. "I think the limit of my morning gymnastics hereafter will be lifting a cup of coffee."

$5,000 REWARD OFFERED FOR CAPTURE OF BANDITS

Three Armed Men in Motor Car Seize Registered Mail on Broadway, New York City.

Washington, Oct. 25—Postmaster General Hayes today offered $5,000 reward for any of the mail robbers implicated in the New York City mail holdup today. The reward applies whether the bandits are taken dead or alive. The New York loss is about $50,000.

Three armed bandits in a motor car forced the driver of a mail truck to stop on lower Broadway late last night while they rifled the trucks of four pouches of registered mail.

The truck was on its woy from the city hall postoffice station to the Pennsylvania Railroad terminal with seventeen pouches of mail, eleven of them containing registered matter. The driver had gone only a few blocks when a green motor car containing three men drew alongside.

Forcing the driver from his seat and to turn over the key, one bandi unlocked the cage and pawed over the pouches inside. Selecting four, he transferred them to the motor car and the trio moved off Broadway west through Leonard street and disappeared.

The driver, when questioned by postal inspectors, said that he had looked in vain for a policeman. The wholesale dry goods district around Broadway and Worth street is generally deserted at night and there is little street traffic after business hours.

BOYS OF HIGH SCHOOL ORGANIZE BOOSTER CLUB

New Organization Has Four Divisions Musical, Debating, Oratory and Assembly

The boys of the Maryville High School yesterday afternoon organized what is known as the Boys Booster Club. The purpose of this club is to encourage the boys to take part in putting on the assemblies and to dedevelop the musical and literary talent of the High School. Principal H. O. Ezell says he nor any of the faculty take any credit for organizing this club, as it was suggested and carried through by some of the boys. Floyd Lunsford, a member of last years High School quartet was elected president. In accepting this office he said that he intended to support this organization just as well as Captain Carstens supports the High School squad. Simeon Wright was elected vice-president and Harold Eaton was elected secretary and treasurer.

In talking of the organization several of the boys were called upon to give their opinion of it. They all agreed that it was time that the boys as a whole should take part in the assemblies and not let the girls do it all. The organization is to be divided into four divisions. One is the Musical division. In this the Booster Club will have contestants entered in all the musical contests next spring. The orchestra will also be a part of this division.

Another division is the debating society. In this branch there will be some competition to choose the school's representatives in the annual debating contests that will be held with the surrounding towns during the winter. There is also an oratorical division where the students with oratorical ambitions will have a chance to show their worth. The other division is the assembly branch, where the boys will plan assemblies during the remaining part of the year.

This is the first organization of the kind in the High School and the boys think they have put one over on the girls this time. The heads of the division will be chosen later on this week.

DR. C. M. CLINE RECUPERATING FROM TYPHOID FEVER.

Dr. James L. Felix, a veterinarian of St. Joseph, arrived in Maryville yesterday and will remain here the next few weeks to take care of some hogs which are sick and other stock. Dr. Felix's partner, Dr. C. M. Cline, is now at Madison, S. D., visiting his parents and recuperating from a seige of typhoid fever. Dr. Cline left Maryville last summer on a trip to the coast and took down with typhoid while on that trip. He is expecting to return to Maryville within the next month, but it may be some little time yet before he is able to resume his work.

George Smith has returned to Maryville from Battle Creek, Mich., where he has been employed. He makes his home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Townsend, and will enter school next term.

SUPT. LESLIE SOMERVILLE SPEAKER AT LUNCHEON

Bert Cooper, Retiring School Executive and Hubert Garrett Also Make Talks

At the luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce last evening at the Linville hotel, Prof. Leslie G. Somerville of Clearmont the new county superintendent of schools who was appointed yesterday by Governor Hyde to succeed Prof. Bert Cooper, who goes to the State Teachers College here, was one of the speakers. Professor Somerville said he had heard about some of the good work of the Chamber of Commerce and that the organization was becoming well known over the country, even to the school children.

Mr. Somerville said he would continue the policy and work of Professor Cooper in advancing the schools of the county.

Mr. Cooper made a few remarks in which he praised the work of the Chamber of Commerce and said since he is not leaving Maryville he expected to continue to be a member and to assist in any way possible for the good of the club. Mr. Cooper also made a report of the money which was raised by the club for the purpose of hiring W. H. Burr as supervisor of vitalized agriculture work in the county last year. Mr. Cooper spoke highly of the efficient work of Mr. Burr.

Another speaker was Hubert Garrett of Clearmont, who succeeds Mr. Somerville as head of the Clearmont schools.

The fellow who courts trouble will be lucky if he gets off with a breach of promise suit.

WOODROW WILSON AS I KNOW HIM

By Joseph P. Tumulty

Secretary to the Governor of New Jersey, 1911-1912
Secretary to the President of the United States, 1913-1921

The most remarkable political disclosure of the age--an intimate, close-up picture of the man whose official acts have puzzled the world. A peep behind the scenes of diplomatic councils that have reshaped the destinies of nations. The first continous, authentic history of Woodrow Wilson's administration by the one man qualified to write such a history. A book that will stir the world and that everyone will be discussing, not only in America, but in foreign countries as well.

Beginning Sunday, October 30, in

THE KANSAS CITY STAR

The first installment of Mr. Tumulty's extraordinary disclosure will appear in The Kansas City Star next Sunday, October 30, and thereafter liberal installments will be published each day in the week and each Sunday until the book is completed.

Remember, Mr. Tumulty's behind-the-scene story of Woodrow Wilson's official life will not be published in book form till after the series of articles in The Kansas City Star is finished.

Have you often wondered why Mr. Wilson adopted his policy of "watchful waiting" at a time when the majority of our statesmen were clamoring for war? Have you speculated as to Mr. Wilson's personal reasons for keeping General Wood at home? Have you been curious to know the considerations that induced Mr. Wilson to attend the Paris peace conference and leave Elihu Root behind?

These and scores of other questions equally interesting are answered for the first time by the man who knows what took place in the ex-President's private life and in the council chambers where even the emissaries of the press were denied admittance.

High Lights of Mr. Tumulty's Remarkable Work:

PROBLEMS OF THE GOVERNOR

GERMAN PEOPLE ENTER ON ORGY OF SPENDING

Craze Is Due to Desire to Exchange Fast Depreciating Money Into Tangible Property.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—Germany is shaking the baby's bank and emptying the old stocks. Marks and groschen are being spent in a mad orgy of buying. Get rid of your marks; put them into some sort of tangible property is the advice one receives from every side.

The little people are buying clothes, shoes, supplies of food, furniture, rugs, anything to turn doubtful marks into real, permanent values. The department stores are selling out faster than they can get deliveries.

"The mark means to us what we can get for it," explains the man on the street. "It is rapidly depreciating, We know what that means; we have been through it before. In a few months we can get only one-half for it what we are getting now, because prices haven't yet caught up with the drop. The man who is holding marks stands to take a big loss. We will turn our marks into real value, which won't depreciate."

The man who has heavy holdings of marks needs no more clothes; he buys as many Oriental rugs, diamonds and paintings as he can usefully store in his apartment. Then he goes to the bourse and buys stocks. The mark is sure to depreciate, he argues; the stock may be good. The result has been a boom on the exchange which has skyrocketed securities high beyond their intrinsic values.

Germany is booming. Everybody is having a big turnover in his business. A large part of the business, however, is due to the underlying fear that marks are losing their purchasing power—so buy now. German business in many quarters may be likened to a game between boys where they pass something hot which no one wants to hold from one to another. It's passing the buck, and the buck is labeled "Marks."

The department store managers are perplexed about their big sales. "We are making a profit, according to the books," said the chief of one of the oldest Berlin firms; "but no business man today knows what he is actually earning or what he is worth. For he doesn't know where the mark actually stands."

To the superficial eye Germany is the most prosperous country in Europe. "This is all artificial," declared Gordon Selfridge, the London merchant, after a few days in Berlin. Mr. Selfridge repeated the same comments which have been made by Lord Beaverbrook and other investigators. "A crash is bound to come."

In the meantime the scramble to convert one's savings into nontaxable property continues. Fears of the new tax program, which no one understands, but which threatens to take all but the barest necessities to meet the reparations, is also to no small extent a factor in the game of flinging the mark.

YOUNG GIRL FINDS RELIEF

Wants to Tell Other Girls All About It

Evansville, Ind.—"I am eighteen years old and have been bothered for several months with irregular periods. Every month my back would ache and I always had a cold and felt drowsy and sleepy. I work in a millinery shop and I went to work every day, but felt stupid and would have such cramps. I had seen Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and had heard several women talk of it, so mother got me some. This Vegetable Compound is wonderful and it helped me very much so that during my periods I am not now sick or drowsy. I have told many girls about your medicine and would be glad to help anyone who is troubled with similar ailments. You may use my testimonial as you like."—STELLA LINXWILER, 6 Second St., Evansville, Indiana

Some girls lead lives of luxury, while others toil for their livelihood, but all are subject to the same physical laws and suffer in proportion to their violation. When such symptoms develop as irregularities, headaches, backaches, bearing-down sensations and "the blues," girls should profit by Miss Linxwiler's experience and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH WORKERS VISIT AT OTHER MEETINGS

Skidmore Revival to Close Wednesday Night, Hopkins Thursday— "The Missing Link" Tonight

Almost one hundred workers went out from the First Christian Church last night to hold services at Palestine, Salem and Bedison.

Dale Humbert took his group of workers to Palestine and reports fine attendance and good interest in the County Campaign. Dr. D. C. Kellems, with his group of workers went to Salem and a splendid service was reported there. The pastor, the Rev. E. E. Snodgrass, went to Bedison with a large group. There was a good attendance and eleven responses to the invitation. All of the local workers report that deep interest in the County Campaign is manifest in all of these communities and large numbers of country people are attending the revival meetings now in progress.

Quite an interest is being shown in the surrounding community in the service tonight. Dr. Kellems has announced for his subject "The Missing Link." The house will no doubt be filled to hear this discussion.

A large group of county leaders attended the luncheon here yesterday and plans were made for the week's campaign. The Men's Class pictures were shown and further plans were made for completing the moving pictures of the county evangelistic campaign.

Unless some unexpected results should develop, the Skidmore meeting will close Wednesday night and the Hopkins meeting will close Thursday night. The Barnard, Burlington Junction and Maryville meetings will continue over Sunday.

Plans are being made for large attendance in the Sunday Schools again next Sunday. Barnard has announced that they expect to have at least one thousand. A little contest is developing in the local school between the men and women. Last Sunday the men outnumbered the women (counting the College class) only about two dozen. At Burlington Junction, the men outnumbered the women by less than a dozen. At Hopkins the women outnumbered the men. The local school is trying for one thousand again as their attendance goal and Supt. E. W. Glenn is confident that to win the contest over Atchison next Sunday it will be necessary to reach at least that number.

KANSAS CITY STAR TO PRINT STORY OF WILSON

Intimate Narrative By Secretary Joseph P. Tumulty Will Be Published In Installments

The Kansas City Star, beginning Sunday October 30, will print a remarkable intimate story of Woodrow Wilson and his administration, one installment each day until the story is completed. This authentic history is a book written by Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the former president. The book will not be published until after the series of articles in the Kansas City Star is finished.

The story is a real "behind-the-scenes" disclosure—a peep behind the scenes of diplomatic councils that have reshaped the destinies of nations. It is claimed that this story, by the one man qualified to write such a history, will stir the world and that everyone will be discussing it, not only in America but in foreign countries as well.

Along with Tumulty's book, the Star will also run on Sundays, Sinclair Lewis's book, "Main Street."

WOOL POOL MANAGER TO MAKE FINANCIAL REPORT

Last of 500,000 Pounds Has Now Been Sold—25 Cents Was Highest Price

Tthe last of the wool in the north west Missouri wool pool has been disposed of, according to John McDaniel, wool pool manager. There was 40,045 pounds in the last sale, which went to Wahlert and Gensler of St. Louis.

A financial report will be made to the members about the middle of November. The pool, which is under the auspices of the farm bureau, has 1,200 accounts.

The pool this year approximated 500,000 pounds, which is the largest in the state, and is believed to be the largest district pool in the country. The result has been satisfactory, according to reports. The best price received was 25 cents for fine clothing wool.

An arrangement was made this year to manufacture blankets, robes and batting, which has proved very satisfactory. Orders have been taken at the pool headquarters, Fourth and Jackson streets, St. Joseph for 200 blankets, 200 batts, and fifty motor robes.

HYDE CALLS LEGISLATURE TO CONVENE NOVEMBER 3

Only Bonus Bill and Highway Bonds are to Be Considered—To Hasten Road Work.

Jefferson City, Oct. 25.—Governor Hyde issued a proclamation late yesterday convening the legislature in special session at noon November 3. But two subjects are mentioned in the proclamation. One is legislation to enable the soldiers, sailors and marines from Missouri who served in the European war to obtain their bounties at an early date, in place of waiting until after March, 1923, and the other is to so amend the highway law as to enable the state to sell 10 million dollars of highway improvement bonds, to the end that work on the highways may start early next season. Under the existing law, none of the 60 million dollars of highway bonds can be sold before March, 1923.
